VOL. XIII.--NO. 218. PORTLAND, OREGON THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1873. PRICE—TEN CENTS.

EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The Pennsylvania Election.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 14—Returns from all the wards in the city but one show for Judge of the Supreme Court Gordon (Rep) 4490, Ludlow (Dem) 1298, Republican majority [illegible].

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 14—In Berks county the Democratic majority is about 4000. Chester county returns indicate a Democratic majority of 500 for the county. Bedford county is very close, with a small Democratic majority. Fulton county gives about 75 Democratic majority. Cumberland county gives a Democratic majority of 600. Columbia county has a Democratic majority of 1,500. Monroe county, Stroudsburg included, gives a Democratic majority of 1,200.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 15—The Press estimates Gordon's majority for Judge of the Supreme Court at over 18,000. Tilden (Rep) is elected in the Third Senatorial District. Sixteen Republicans and two Democrats are elected to the Legislature from this city. Elliott (Rep), for Sheriff, has 27,540 majority over the Democratic and Reform candidates combined.

The Iowa Election.

CHICAGO, Oct 14—Returns from the Iowa election up to midnight are scattering and meagre but they indicate a full vote and a considerable Republican gain over the vote of two years ago. The Republican State ticket is undoubtedly elected though by a reduced majority, but the anti-monopolists have carried their representative ticket in quite a number of counties where the Republican State ticket has a majority.

CHICAGO, Oct 15—2 A. M.—Returns from Iowa are still incomplete but they indicate that the Republican State ticket is elected by about 20,000 majority. The Anti-Monopolists will probably succeed in the election of many members to the Legislature.

LATER.—Additional returns from Iowa confirm the early advices of the probable re-election of Carpenter (Rep) for Governor and the success of the Anti-Monopoly county tickets in a majority of the counties. The Legislature, however, will probably be Republican.

The Ohio Election.

CLEVELAND, Oct 15—Later returns from the State indicate a close vote for Governor with probabilities in favor of the Democrats. The majority will not run over 1,000 either way. Democrats claim the State Legislature beyond a doubt. Cuyahoga county gives Noyes about 2,000 majority.

Elections in the District of Columbia.

WASHINGTON, Oct 14—The election for members of the District of Columbia House of Delegates, resulted in the election of two Democrats and twenty Republicans.

Election in Newark, N. J.

NEWARK, Oct 14—The Charter election resulted in the election of Perry, Democratic and Reform candidate, by 179 majority.

A Blue T[illegible]y in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, Oct 14—Wall street experienced the bluest time to-day that has ever been known, so far as the Stock Exchange is concerned. Prices have been allowed to fall below the lowest points touched in any of the panics of the past ten years. The decline is attributed to various causes. Some held that it was due to the order of Judge Blatchford yesterday, in relation to the bankruptcy of Geo Bird Grinnell & Co, and said that until the injunction was removed, no one on the street could tell how soon the market might be flooded with stock, and so long as it continues, brokers will be unable to borrow money. Others explained the decline by the fact that large amounts of stocks carried on margins have been sold in consequence of holders being unable to put up any more collateral. It is said that Vanderbilt has been a free seller, and that Gould has sold out stocks which he bought in and could not deliver and has been buying up gold. Orders were sent in to-day, from almost every quarter directing the sale of stocks. Outsiders appear to be panic stricken.

The Financial Outlook in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct 15—The feeling to-day is improved. There is a general advance of 1@7 per cent, supposed to be in consequence of a dissolution of Judge Blatchford's injunction in the Grinnell bankruptcy case. Central Pacific bonds are 88½@89, Union Pacific bonds 74½@75, New York Central 86¾@87, Western Union 52½@53, Erie [illegible]. Gilmanson & Co are reported suspended. Their difficulties are caused by continued demands of depositors and inability to make collections. W S Perry attributes his suspension to decline in stocks.

Another Enormous Robbery.

ALBANY, Oct 15—Charles H Phelps, Cashier in the Treasury Department of State, was arrested in Jersey City and brought here, charged with robbing the State Treasury of an amount estimated at $300,000.

Petitions for the Repeal of the Shipping Act.

NEW YORK, Oct 14—Two petitions are being circulated for signatures asking Congress to repeal the shipping act. One purports to be on behalf of owners, merchants and masters of American vessels, and prays for its repeal on the ground that their rights to make private contracts should not be interfered with by the Government. The other purports to come from mariners of the port of New York. Both state general objections to bills which have been already published. A strong personal opposition is manifest to Capt Duncan, who it is alleged, introduced and conducted the system with an eye to his private interest.

Proclamation of Thanksgiving.

WASHINGTON, Oct 14—The President issued the following to-day:

By the President of the United States of America—Proclamation: The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us. Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the blessings [illegible]. Tranquillity at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its [illegible] and its merited reward. Gradually but under the providence of God surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife. For these and all other mercies vouchsafed to us as a people, our heartfelt and grateful acknowledgements are due, and with our thanksgiving we may unite our prayers for the cessation of local and temporary suffering. I therefore recommend that on Thursday, the 27th of November next the people meet in their respective places of worship to make their acknowledgements to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection and to offer Him prayers for their continuance. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington this 14th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy three and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-eighth.

The Cartagena Insurgents and their Naval Defeat.

MADRID, Oct 14—The insurgents of Cartagena attribute the defeat of their squadron solely to the cowardice of Contreras who ordered a retreat against the wishes of the crews. It is generally believed that not over 13,000 votes will be cast altogether. Hoodlums and gamblers are working hard against Louderback and in favor of Drake. McKinstry for Supreme Judge is thought to be ahead so far.

SAN FRANCISCO, 15—The election passed off very quietly—no excitement whatever. Probably not over 12,000 votes polled. The returns will be given early. It is believed that McKinstry has carried the city. The result between Drake and Louderback cannot even be guessed at though the friends of the latter are confident of his election.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 15—The election returns are all in. Louderback's majority over Drake (Dem) for Police Judge is 1454. McKinstry's majority is over 1000, and Wheeler's majority over Dangerfield for Judge of the Nineteenth District about 400. The precise figures are not yet ascertained.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

VICTORIA, Oct [illegible]—[illegible] has turned out to be but [illegible] and will not realize anything like what was anticipated in the first part of the season. Miners are leaving the camp daily and the many miners there are feeling very anxious. Cruise of the U. S. Steamer Tuscarora.

VICTORIA, Oct 15—The U S steamer Tuscarora arrived here a few days since for coal. Following is a brief account of her late trip kindly furnished by one of her officers: We took our departure from Cape Flattery on the morning of the 17th ult, and between that time and the 30th ult ran a distance of 1,110 miles on the great circle route between Cape Flattery and Attu in the Aleutian group. We sounded several times to test the bottom, but more for the purpose of thoroughly testing the working of our apparatus than for any other reason. When at a distance of 20 miles from Cape Flattery the depth of water suddenly decreased from about 1,000 fathoms to less than 600 fathoms, showing the existence of a submarine mountain nearly 2,400 feet in hight. From this mountain to the position of our last cast we found the surface of the ocean bed to increase in depth at a ratio of about a fathom to a mile. The last cast was in a depth of 2,534 fathoms, in latitude 53 degrees 56 minutes, longitude 151 degrees west. Then having but a small amount of coal on hand we put back for this port. Our apparatus worked admirably. Sir Wm Thompson's machine, with fine piano wire, is undoubtedly the best apparatus for sounding purposes now known. At each cast specimens of the ocean bed and of the under surface water were brought up as well as the temperature of the water within a few feet of the ocean bed. At each cast boats were sent away from the ship and the set and strength of the under surface and surface currents determined. After coaling the Tuscarora will put to sea again with as little delay as possible and will sound as much farther to the westward as they can before the winter gales set in.

TRIAL OF MARSHAL BAZAINE.

A Paris dispatch of October 6th says:

The trial of Marshal Bazaine by court martial opened at noon to-day at the Palace Trianon. The Duke d'Aumale presided. Among the witnesses present were Marshals Canrobert and Lebœuf and Generals Frossard, Bourbaki and Changarnier. When the formalities attending the opening of the court had been completed a brief recess was taken, after which by order of the President the statement of the public services of Marshal Bazaine was read. It comprised the history of his military career from the beginning and recounted the distinctions which had been conferred upon him and the wounds he had received.

The report of the Committee of Inquiry on the capitulation of Metz was next presented and read. This was followed by the reading of the indictment, to which the Marshal listened attentively but without emotion. M Rivierre then submitted his report. It reviews the plans of the campaign proposed by defendant, gives a sketch of the battle of Forbach, in which great stress is laid on Bazaine's responsibility for the result because he neglected to go to General Frossard's assistance. In regard to the conduct at Metz M Rivierre takes the ground that the Marshal at no time was really desirous of leaving the place. After hearing Rivierre's report the court adjourned until to-morrow.

The court-martial before which Marshal Bazaine is now being tried sits in the audience chamber of the Grand Trianon at Versailles. The scene at the opening to-day was remarkable. Nearly all the witnesses who had been summoned were present and the court-room was filled with the most distinguished men of France. Besides those previously reported Lavre and Reguirre were in attendance. The calling of their names as witnesses caused a sensation.

Bazaine appeared in the full uniform of a Marshal of France with the ribbon and grand cross of the Legion of Honor on his breast. He took his seat in an arm chair by himself and was courteously addressed by the President [illegible]. The defense is conducted by MM Lachaud & Son, the eminent advocates, and Colonel Villette.

The attendance of [illegible] was not large and the space reserved was at no time fully occupied. It is expected that the next ten days will be devoted to the reading of the papers connected with the indictment. [illegible] Schneider and [illegible] and General [illegible] were also present as witnesses.

WHY HE SMOKED.—George Colman in his "Random Recollections" tells a comical story of a parcel of school boys in the time of James I of England who smoked to excess. [illegible]

GENERAL NOTES.

A very [illegible] at Dubuque [illegible] who once narrowly [illegible] with Nesmith [illegible].

The Shah [illegible] that European rulers are not kings [illegible] the will of the people and have no power over the lives of their subjects.

The story which Mr Wilkie Collins is to read before the American public is "The Dream Woman: A Mystery," and it [illegible] written for the purpose.

Some disappointed New York financier telegraphed to Secretary Richardson: "Go drown yourself," to which the Secretary replied, "I will do no such thing."

A New York physician recently paid two thousand eight hundred dollars for the bones of the horse which carried Napoleon Bonaparte at the battle of Waterloo.

The famous "Little Church Around the Corner," on Twenty ninth street, New York, is being remodeled and enlarged to accommodate Rev Mr Houghton's rapidly increasing congregation.

A postal card was received at Portland, Me, recently having a dollar bill sewed on one side of it and directly above the bill was written: "If this is stolen it will be after it leaves the Kittery Postoffice."

Among the phenomena of the freshmen class at Trinity College is a Pennsylvania infant seventeen years old who measures six feet seven inches in height and weighs 1[illegible]5 pounds. The students talk of using him for an observatory.

An effort is being made to interest the people of Paris in the subject of pilgrimages and it is hoped to induce three millions of people to visit some shrine near that city. The Catholic workmen's clubs there are declared to be among the great facts of the age.

A very superior quality of champagne, it is said, is now fabricated with petroleum as the chief ingredient. It is rapidly taking rank as a native wine and the oil region of Pennsylvania bids fair to become the champagne district of America at an early day.

A telegraph operator at Elmira recently summoned a doctor from Wellsburg thus: "Come at once to see procession of Carrie Spencer's menagerie." The message when repeated read: "Come at once with prescription [illegible] case of cerebro spinal meningitis."

A witness in describing certain events said: "The person I saw at the head of the stairs was a man with one eye named Jacob Williams." "What was the name of his other eye?" spitefully asked the opposing counsel. The witness was disgusted at the levity of the audience.

Mr Edward Robinson, who was the first man to officiate as a railway conductor, is now living in Utah. He is now sixty six years old and at the age of twenty two he was the first of six men selected to run trains on the Liverpool and Manchester railway, the first railway ever built.

The building in which Chicago is holding her Exposition is of brick, iron and glass, 800 feet long by 200 feet wide and has a floor surface of 200,000 square feet, the whole cost being a million of dollars. It is claimed that the exhibition will outshine any similar display ever given in the United States.

The first premium on matched horses at the Oneida County Fair was awarded a resident of Utica. As the judges were tying the ribbons on, an unsuccessful exhibitor demurred to their decision, saying "On what grounds do you give the premium to Mr ——'s horses?" "On fair grounds," was the witty reply.

The recent pilgrimage to Paray le Monial has brought no less a sum than $500,000 to that place, and it is proposed to erect a shrine which will surpass in splendor that which the pilgrims' forefathers erected over Thomas a Becket. This good fortune is rendering Roman Catholics in England a little jealous.

A new club has been started in Madras to which the name of "Cosmopolitan" has been given. The intention of the movers in this undertaking is to bring Europeans and natives together and to instil into the latter more enlightened notions on the subject of social habits and customs than they at present display.

This is the pathetic appeal of a disgusted Englishman: "We are going to war again to soundly thrash the Ashantees and probably put a penny or twopence more on to the income tax. Let me ask then why not arbitrate with these misguided niggers. Get Quashee to Geneva as we did Jonathan and arbitrate."

A recent traveler in Japan tells what he calls a few wholesome truths about that country and declares that the population has been greatly over estimated, that it is poverty stricken and that the tremendous and ruinous expenses of the Government are borne by a treasury which is rich chiefly in very pretty paper money.

Glass bonnets have appeared. They are formed of a tissue woven of fine glass threads and may be said to be the glass of fashion fitted to the mould of form. But ladies who wear them must deny themselves the pleasure of criticising the neighbors on the principle that it is dangerous for those who live in glass houses to throw stones.

A very singular phase of horse training was exhibited at Columbus, Ohio. The horse Postle won a trotting race in three straight heats without a break, making better than 2:40 every time. And the same day at the same Fair he was entered for and won the pacing match in nearly the same time. Such an instance is almost without parallel.

A Montreal paper relates an incident which recently occurred in that city, in which a Newfoundland dog attacked by a bull dog [illegible] his antagonist. The contest took place on the banks of the canal and before the two could be separated they rolled over the wharf into the water where they continued the combat till the Newfoundlander succeeded in drowning the other.

The oldest teacher in the United States is Miss Hannah Inman, who taught school in Providence seventy five years ago. She is nearly ninety four years old and taught school many years in Providence, Smithfield, Gloucester and Leicester, Mass, and other places. The salary varied with the school but for nine years in one place it was twenty five cents a week.

A new use for patent pills has been discovered. A farmer living in a Kansas village was abruptly visited by robbers one night [illegible] and having a gun and powder but no shot loaded with a box of liver pills and blazed away. The result was as satisfactory as though the rascals had swallowed the pills. One of them was killed outright and another dangerously wounded.

A curious question has been raised at the [illegible] Church Synod of [illegible] Ireland. The Dean proposed that the [illegible]. Eventually an amendment virtually [illegible] the Dean proposed was carried.

A correspondent of [illegible] [illegible] the Church [illegible].

A child with four teeth [illegible]. A physician recently removed two of the offending teeth, the infant expelled another by sneezing, and one yet remains for physician, dentist and child to contest the honor of extracting. The wonder is five years old.

OREGON.

So much water has collected in the Albany and Santiam Ditch that it will add considerably to the cost of finishing it.

On Sunday two warehouses at Junction City fell down, scattering their contents, forty thousand bushels of wheat, in every direction. The buildings were owned by Wm Lemons and O R Bean & Co.

The Oregon and California Railroad Company has adopted the Oregon Home for the sick at Salem as the place for treating all cases of injury occurring to the employes of the road between Aurora and Roseburg.

The Register says as last Monday was the first day of the Circuit Court a large number of people were gathered in Albany from other parts of the county and State, all of whom voted, and although this was the case, the vote of this precinct showed a count of at least one fourth less than the usual vote cast in the precinct.

The Albany Register of the 15th inst says $115,000 is the amount N Baum will receive and pay out on his wheat contract to-morrow—Thursday. Thus the American coin comes floating in, and will eventually be pretty well distributed throughout the entire community, making times much livelier than they have been for many years previously. Owners of wheat land in Linn county this season are in luck to be sure.

Wheat still continues to be hauled into Albany notwithstanding the sloppy condition of the roads and the rain drops. The Farmers' warehouse is full to the top—said to contain 125,000 bushels—and Messrs Beach & Monteith are to store the balance of the wheat contracted for by the Company, for which they now have no space. Messrs Howell, Harper & Co have also a tremendous weight of wheat in their new warehouse and the other warehouses and mills are about full.

The Statesman furnishes a list of the articles stolen during the State Fair from which it will be seen the hoodlums got away with some profit on their investment: Two work horses, 1 new bridle, 1 halter, 22 blankets, 3 suits of clothes, $60 in cash, 1 fine silver watch and quite a variety of articles of value from the Pavilion Saturday night. These things were lifted mostly from the tents of campers and do not include the pickpocketing and swindling on the ground. In this latter way the hoodlums accumulated considerable swag.

PERSONAL NOTES.

William Everett, son of Edward Everett, has been admitted to the ministry in Boston.

Warmoth, of Louisiana, has not been within the boundaries of that State since last spring.

Barnum's $17,000 rhinoceros died in Philadelphia recently. The Smithsonian Institute will fall heir to the body.

The Confederate General and Tactician Hardee, who was believed to be in a dying condition at Selma, Ala, is now recovering.

In spite of Cincinnati's hollow pig tails [illegible] has taken the first premium in sausage stuffers at the Cincinnati exposition.

The cadets at Annapolis have another colored boy, Mr Alonzo McClennard, to turn up their noses at. He is appointed from South Carolina.

The Michigan Constitutional Commission has rejected by a tie vote, after a protracted and brisk discussion, a proposition to place a recognition of the Deity in the preamble.

In order to retain the advantage over the Scandinavian navigator who is said to have discovered America several centuries before Columbus, it is proposed to erect a monument to the memory of the latter in Philadelphia. Columbus must and shall be preserved.

MIDDLE MEN IN TRADE.—There is no denying the [illegible] that is paid to the rising party by men of all callings and conditions. The other day a venerable preacher of the Christian persuasion was holding services in his church which is in the heart of a grange community. In the course of his sermon he became eloquent and exhorted his hearers to come to Christ and insisting upon personal and direct communion with the Father, declared that all other means were as useless as middle men in trade. The next day he went to his butcher's to buy him some meat and was thunderstruck to be denied. "What?" he exclaimed, "don't I pay for what I get?" [illegible] "I always paid for what I got." "Yes," coolly replied the butcher, "but I can't deal with you any more. [illegible] I am going to [illegible] and I don't want any middle men in mine."

H[illegible] MONEY.—[illegible] that during the [illegible] a farmer drew $600 from the banks in [illegible] and on his way home hid it in what he thought a safe place, but on arising the following morning he found that some [illegible] had taken it. Another [illegible] is that of a saloon keeper in the Fifth Ward who drew $800 out of the bank and had his pocket picked of the whole amount before night.

THE TERRITORIES.

Mining matters are looking well in the [illegible] District.

The crops throughout Dakota this season have been all that could be desired.

[illegible] has organized a sewing society, notwithstanding the failure of Jay Cooke & Co.

Rich deposits of cinnabar are said to have been found in the northern part of Mohave county.

Some of the gamblers and soiled doves in Salt Lake City have recently been returning their back pay.

The Beaver Enterprise is repeatedly taken for a shoeshop. The boys wax wroth at being called shoemakers.

A Chinaman has been arrested in Corinne for a murder committed in Pioneer gulch, Montana, two years ago.

Rich discoveries of silver ore are reported about twenty five miles south of Green River Station on the Union Pacific Railroad.

Prof Hayden has sent to the Cabinet of Natural History at Washington, from Colorado, 227 different kinds of grasshoppers.

The locomotive on the Boulder Valley Railroad is expected to sound its whistle, inside the corporate limits of Boulder, by October 1st.

J L Lovelace of Mill Prairie, Clark county, W T, has raised this season nearly 4,000 bushels of wheat and about 8,000 bushels of oats.

There are about 1,610,000 acres of land in El Paso county of which only 145,000 have been entered, and most of that within the past five years.

The new Ford Hotel, now completed in Denver, is five stories in height, fitted up in the best manner, and will accommodate over three hundred guests.

A Laramie storekeeper has reduced the price of shirts and the men over there are greatly rejoiced. They no longer go to bed to have that lonely one washed.

The Laramie Independent says it is reported that Gen Sheridan intends making preparations at Fort Russell for a winter campaign against the Indians. He is at the post now.

Dr Cass arrived at Corinne from the Cariboo mines, with 200 ounces of gold taken from the flumes of the Jeff Thompson mine, which is said to be yielding from fifteen to forty ounces per day.

Work on the new steam fog whistle at New Dungeness, W T, is progressing rapidly. A large force of men are now employed, and everything is expected to be in readiness to commence sounding by the 1st of November.

The Tacoma Tribune of last Saturday says: "Montgomery's pile-driver is again hammering up the bay, and the trestle-work is lengthening out toward the depot on the wharf. The grading is all done, and the last of the ties hauled. About forty teams were discharged yesterday, and will be sent soon to Eastern Oregon to winter."

A letter dated San Antonio (New Mexico), Sept. 14th, says: "The citizens of San Antonio—Americans, Germans, Mexicans and colored, all surpassed themselves yesterday by voting $500,000 subsidy for a railroad to Columbus—which means Galveston. The $500,000 is in bonds, bearing eight per cent interest, the principal to be paid in thirty years."

Since Col Tom Scott was made President of the Atlantic and Pacific railroad, it has been rumored that probably the Texas Pacific road and the A & P road will form a junction and cross the Rio Grande below Albuquerque and cross Arizona on the 35th parallel to the Needles there to connect with the Southern Pacific road. Such a change of the programme is quite surprising, and if carried out will be very much to the advantage of northern Arizona.

JEFFERSON'S POVERTY.

[From the Atlantic Monthly for October.]

Mr Jefferson's affairs did not mend, though he enjoyed the able and resolute assistance of his grandson and namesake, Thomas Jefferson Randolph, and he resolved, at length, to discharge the worst of his debts, in the fashion of old Virginia, by selling a portion of his lands. But there was nobody to buy. Land sold in the usual way would not bring a third of its value and consequently he petitioned the Legislature to relax the operation of the law so far as to allow him to dispose of some of his farms by lottery, as was frequently done when money was to be raised for a public object. The Legislature granted his request, though with reluctance. But, in the meantime it had been noised abroad, all over the Union, that the author of the Declaration of Independence was about to lose the far famed Monticello with which his name had been associated in the public mind for two generations, the abode of his prime and the refuge of his old age, a Mecca to the Republicans of many lands. A feeling arose in all liberal minds that this must not be, and during the spring of 1826, the last of his years, subscriptions were made for his relief in several places. Philip Hone, Mayor of New York, raised without an effort, as Mr Randall records, $8,500. Philadelphia sent $5,000 and Baltimore $3,000. The lottery was suspended and Mr Jefferson's last days were soothed by the belief that the subscriptions would suffice to free his estate from debt and secure home and independence to his daughter and her children. He was proud of the liberality of his countrymen and proud to be its object. He who had refused to accept so much as a loan from the Legislature of his State gloried in being the recipient of gifts from individuals. "No cent of this," said he, "is wrung from the tax payer. It is the pure and unsolicited offering of love."

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.—The librarian of the Boston Mercantile Library writes the following to a journal in that city: "Let me tell you of an amusing instance of a mistaken identity that occurred in the rooms of the association last evening. While engaged in reading I heard a voice saying, 'May I come inside?' Glancing toward the door I observed a venerable female, who inquired if the panorama was going. I invited her to be seated and told her that the panorama was up another flight, but as the doors were not open she could remain in the reading room. While she was looking around our excellent statue of the W[illegible] attracted her attention. She instantly approached it, sank on her knees before it and offered up prayer after prayer. When she had finished her devotions I asked for an explanation. She quickly answered, 'Shure, and isn't that our Saviour?' [illegible] That was enough for her. Taking a parting glance at the figure she said [illegible] and [illegible] parted with [illegible] good night."

THE OLDEST OLD MAN.—The very oldest man lately discovered is Jose Martin [illegible] of [illegible], Brazil, who blushingly acknowledges to 178 years. Being a miserable South American he cannot boast of having voted at every Presidential election since the adoption of the Constitution, but he condescends to resemble the Yankee centenarian by cutting a new set of teeth. One hundred and seventy eight years. Just think of it. If that man was properly divided he would make three grandfathers and an uncle.

The following new bills were [illegible] duced:

The bill relating to [illegible] county was [illegible] after a third [illegible] which the House adjourned till 10 A. M. to-morrow.

The only business of importance [illegible] the Council was receiving and [illegible] print, the report of Superintendent of Schools.

A MARVEL [illegible]

Mr Finlayson, Town Clerk of [illegible], land in the latter part of the [illegible] tury, was noted for the marvellous in narration. He was on a visit to the [illegible] teith and Airth, in his [illegible] of [illegible] Loch of Monteith, and was about [illegible] leave, when he was asked by the Earl [illegible] he had seen the sliding cherry tree.

"No," said Finlayson, "what sort of thing is it?"

"It is," replied the Earl, "a tree [illegible] grown out at a goat's mouth from a [illegible] bird had swallowed, and which she [illegible] with her in her voyages round the loch [illegible] now in full fruit, of the most exquisite [illegible]. Now, Finlayson," he added, "can you [illegible] all your powers of memory and [illegible] my story of the cherry tree?"

"Perhaps I can," said Finlayson, [illegible] his throat, and adding: "When Oliver [illegible] well was at Airth, one of his [illegible] ball to Stirling, and I [illegible] it in [illegible] a trumpet, which one of the troops [illegible] tle was in the act of sounding."

"Was the trooper killed?" asked the [illegible].

"No, my lord," replied Finlayson, "he [illegible] the ball back, and killed the artilleryman [illegible] had fired it."

AN UNEXPECTED BILL.—A few days [illegible] well-dressed couple, in the prime of [illegible] stopped at a hotel in a neighboring town, sending for a justice of the peace, informing that functionary that they wished to be married. The justice said "All right," and inquired their names. After being told, it struck him that he had performed the same service for the same lady some years before. Upon inquiring if such was not the case, the [illegible] said she had been married previously. "Have you a bill from your former husband?" [illegible] Mr Justice. "Yes," she replied, "I have a bill." This being satisfactory the ceremony was performed and the couple were declared man and wife. As they were about [illegible] ing the justice, who had never seen a bill of divorce and having a strong desire to behold the document, thought this an excellent opportunity to satisfy his curiosity. He therefore said to the lady, "Have you the bill with you?" "Oh yes," she replied. "Have you any objections to allowing me to see the bill?" said our friend. "None whatever," she replied, stepping to the door and calling to a little boy some three or four years of age, she said: "Here Bill, come here quick, here is a gentleman that wishes to see you." The gentleman wilted.—Anoka (Minn.) Republican.

WALT WHITMAN PARODIED.—Trust woman's affection for any tender and delicate tribute to a beloved object. Hear what a Georgetown young lady promises the "good gray poet." We venture to commend the poetic beauties of the composition to Messrs Tennyson and Swinburne:

When thou art dead, Walt Whitman,
I will come and sit by thy grave, [illegible]
And I think of the good of the generous deeds thou hast done,
[illegible] I'll bring with me a knife,
[illegible] tempered and suited to delicate strokes,
And [illegible] the marble that over thy ashes extends,
I'll [illegible] which the same it is Mary Jane Smith,
And [illegible] that be fully oh Walt!

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 16, 1873

A PARTIAL CONFESSION.

To the charge made by the OREGONIAN—that Multnomah county was carried for Hiram Smith by the grossest fraud and bribery, and the liberal use of a corruption fund, the Bulletin answers that "the amount contributed by the 'Custom House ring' to aid in the election of Hiram Smith, was just $580." Perhaps the Bulletin tells the truth. Whether it does or not, we did not allege that the Custom House "ring contributed $7,000. We charged that the sum of money was used. Furthermore, we think it quite probable that the Bulletin will find it rather difficult to prove to Hiram Smith's satisfaction that it ever used a cent "to aid in his election." The fund that was so efficiently handled by the ring and it's strikers, was intended to secure an endorsement of the Mitchell resolution here in Multnomah county. The election of Mr. Smith might follow as an incident.

But the Bulletin volunteers to give items of expense. It says that four hundred dollars of this sum—$580—"went to pay for extra editions of newspapers printed and circulated," while one hundred and fifty-six dollars was consumed for postage. There remains a balance of twenty-four dollars, which was used, we presume, in printing the "cards" with which City Attorney Mulkey is so fragrantly (or flagrantly) connected.

Oakes Ames had his greasy little memorandum book, and every one of its brief entries was at the same time death warrant and epitaph to a dozen of the brightest reputations in the Union. Perhaps the Bulletin has its little memorandum of items which, if scanned with care, might compromise, perhaps ruin, the reputation of some of our most active "party managers." While it is particularizing will it dare to tell what was done with the thousand dollars contributed by Hiram Smith, and that one thousand five hundred dollars contributed by Senator Mitchell? Of course the Bulletin will consider our inquiry impertinent but we are persuaded that the majority of the Republican party in Oregon have some little curiosity in this matter of a large election fund consumed in carrying a single county. Our [illegible] thinks that "$7,000 is a pretty sum":—this regretfully, as who would say, "Good-bye $7,000." And it says, also, that "it is not a remarkably big job to raise that amount of money." From which we infer that the gaugers, assistant gaugers and sub-assistant gaugers, the weighers, the sub-weighers and the [illegible] sub-weighers are beginning to feel the onerous burden of assessment so recently laid on them.

We are not surprised to hear from the Bulletin that "the whole story told by the OREGONIAN is simply fabulous." Perhaps a jury of Mr. Mulkey's peers (!) will have an opportunity to test that question. It may be that we erred in our minute description of the "cards." Won't the Bulletin give us an accurate facsimile of those [illegible] in Friday's issue? We [illegible] it intimated that its job-office [illegible] furnished with the necessary [illegible] a cut of President Grant [illegible] the other features. We wonder if City Attorney Mulkey thinks the OREGONIAN's story is "fabulous." It is said that he visited the Sheriff's office three [illegible] yesterday to learn if a warrant for [illegible] on a charge of bribery had been issued. Why, then, this trepidation? But [illegible] be a fable, it is like all of [illegible] fables: there is a moral to it. We will give the moral in a few days.

FLURRY AMONG THE SOILED DOVES.

The Bulletin may feign to be perfectly [illegible] over the developments in corruption and bribery which the OREGONIAN [illegible] on Tuesday, but it is quite apparent that our exposure caused great [illegible] among the members of the [illegible]. Yesterday the man Ryan, who [illegible] in the Police Court on a [illegible] of repeating was admitted to bail in the sum of $100. It is said that he left the city immediately;—going no one knows whither. But before he left he made a clean breast of the iniquitous [illegible] of the ring, which we may see [illegible] give to the people before long. [illegible] night another of these repeaters [illegible] arrested. At the Police Court he [illegible] in the name of Campell. We learn that he implicates an individual by the name of Longfellow in the transaction of buying votes. Soon after this Campbell [illegible], a call went forth for a meeting of certain parties at the office of Mitchell & Dolph. The following named persons [illegible] at this meeting:—Longfellow, Senator J. H. Mitchell, Hiram Smith, J. N. [illegible], [illegible] Briggs, M. F. Mulkey, J. P. [illegible] and C. E. DuBois. The object of the meeting, as we understand, was to [illegible] ways and means to keep M. F. Mulkey, Longfellow and several other [illegible] implicated in the infamous transactions of Monday out of the penitentiary, for the present. The Grand Jury is still in session.

THE GUILELESS INFANT.

Says our naive son of thunder down the street:

> The election on Monday was out of season; people throughout the State attended to their employments, and did not vote. Not much more than half the vote was thrown. Democrats always like to vote better than Republicans do, and on occasions of this kind a larger proportion of them invariably attend the polls.

"The guileless infant!" Why did not the people vote? It is not their wont to stay away in such large numbers. About next March the Bulletin will begin to see what the Salem Statesman, with commendable clearness of vision, now sees, that it "has been badly licked and battered." But then, as our "dark-eyed prophet of the Nile" remarks: "Democrats always like to vote better than Republicans do." What engaging simplicity!

The Pope is credited by the veracious telegraph with having addressed a delegation, which called on him recently in these words: "Confusion has entered the enemy's camp. They strive to induce me to leave Rome, but I never will."

Two women will occupy seats in the next Wyoming Legislature.

WE MEAN BUSINESS.

The honest Republican voters who were led into the support of the Albany infamy will be astounded when the details of the scheme of the corruptionists and bribers of this city are laid before them. The OREGONIAN proposes to do all in its power to bring the guilty parties to justice. Whatever may be done with courts and juries this journal cannot be silenced. The truth must come out. Just before Ryan, the repeater, left this city yesterday he made a full confession of all the dealings of the ring with him, saying, "The d—d —— (naming certain members of the ring) got me into this scrape, and they have got to get me out. They promised to see me out when I went in, but before I go I'll give them a dose."

We may have occasion, before long, to indicate the extent of our knowledge of this matter.

Several days ago we published extracts from a letter written by ex-Governor Wise, of Virginia, in which that reconstructed gentleman announced his intention of supporting Col. Hughes, the Republican candidate for Governor of Virginia. And now Colonel Kemper, Democratic candidate for Governor, publishes a statement in which he says that he also has a letter from Governor Wise, pledging himself to support the Democratic State ticket. Is this Wise or otherwise? A statement explanatory from the uncertain old gentleman is loudly demanded by both parties in Virginia.

The Department of State has been informed by General Schenck that the National Association of Science, of London, has offered a prize of three hundred pounds sterling to the person who shall write the most able essay on the following subject: "In what way ought an International Assembly to be constituted for the formation of a code of public international law, and what ought to be the principles on which such code should be formed?" The Association invites Americans to compete for the prize. The essay is to be sent to the Association on or before the 1st of June, 1874.

By a statement of the yield of Crown Point and Belcher gold mines, which appeared in a recent issue of the San Francisco Bulletin, it is shown that the two mines have in the last three years produced $25,000,000 in gold and silver. The total dividends declared amount to $14,236,000. Of this, Crown Point paid $6,540,000, and Belcher $7,090,000. The Virginia Enterprise predicts that the product of 1874 will fully equal $20,000,000. It bases this estimate on reports that there is an immense body of rich ore in sight.

A Topeka dispatch of the 10th inst., says that a suit in garnishment was brought some days ago in the District Court in that city, against the State Treasurer, by creditors of ex-Senator Pomeroy, to recover the seven thousand dollars which figured in the last Kansas Senatorial election. The Treasurer has filed an answer declaring that the money is not in his possession, that he had returned it to the Lieutenant-Governor, from whom he received it originally. Personal suits have been brought against the Treasurer and Lieutenant-Governor.

D. O. McCarthy, formerly of the Alta California, fell down a flight of stairs in San Francisco the other day, breaking his collar-bone and fracturing his skull.

Senor Solor, Spanish Minister of the Colonies, will leave Madrid on the 20th inst., to visit Porto Rico and Cuba.

EVIDENCE AGAINST BAZAINE.—A Paris dispatch of Oct. 10th says:

There was a large attendance of spectators at the Bazaine court martial to-day. Several interesting documents were read relating to the efforts to communicate with Metz; and the probity of the messengers employed, twenty of whom were summoned as witnesses. The prosecution attaches great importance to a dispatch delivered, as it alleges, to Bazaine on the 23d of August, announcing McMahon's movement toward the Meuse to join hands with the enemy at Metz. Bazaine is charged with refusing to avail himself of balloon service to communicate with the interior. Counsel for the defense will move that a justificatory memoir, published some time ago by the accused, be admitted as evidence.

Among the documents read at the trial to-day was one showing that there were 17,000,000 cartridges in the arsenal of Metz, of which only 1,000,000 had been used when the place capitulated, and that when Bazaine said he had no ammunition, the fact was that he had no intention of fighting.

The New York Journal of Commerce, reflecting on the panic, says:

"Nothing less startling than the development of the Credit Mobilier swindle and the Northern Pacific explosion could have shaken some people out of their infatuated love for subsidy-giving as a policy of Government. It was the old delusion of a strong, central, protecting administration which should take all sorts of schemes under its wings, and be everybody's parent and benefactor."

THE CIRCUIT WAS BROKEN.—A Detroit man went into a telegraph office and wrote the following message: "To the Lord in Heaven—Where shall I go next? The world is growing worse every day. There is not an honest Christian in America." He was informed that the lines didn't connect.

CITY.

It S[illegible] —Now [illegible] we much to [illegible] tell a long story of a [illegible] performance which recently came [illegible] Theater, in this city the substance of which is about as follows A young lady well known to this public who essayed [illegible] had doubtless read about the [illegible] of Mlle [illegible] Marie an actress [illegible] whose [illegible] has made [illegible] as the heroine [illegible] Madame Angot that the patrons [illegible] all her whims and caprices [illegible] charms and allow her to [illegible] with them or their part [illegible] she appeared before the footlights [illegible] that she did not feel like playing that night and no entreaty could [illegible] Our Portland [illegible] to emulate her Parisian sister [illegible] informed her audience the [illegible] that she had concluded not to go [illegible] performance But Portland is not [illegible] What seemed but a bewitching eccentricity [illegible] the indulgent Parisian was [illegible] to the uncivilized Portland ears and a howl of execration saluted the ears of the actress as she made known her intention Her husband marched to the front and [illegible] demanded of his wife if she was going to be [illegible] fool as to have five dollars knocked off her salary and half a dozen lumbermen jumped over the heads of the amused [illegible] of the orchestra and informed the young lady that if the play didn't proceed [illegible] nonsense they'd cut her up for [illegible] Astounded at the sudden [illegible] she had excited in her histrionic efforts the much frightened soubrette instantly reconsidered her [illegible] and proceeded with the [illegible] in the bills This story will sound strange as such an episode never occurred here [illegible] the knowledge of the public.

DANGEROUS FALL —A painful accident occurred on Thursday at Hapgood's Fishery, which resulted in very serious injuries to a man named Geo W Dyer He had climbed to the top of a derrick to hitch a tackling block, when one of the guy ropes suddenly became loose Mr Dyer was thus thrown backward He fell a distance of about twenty two feet striking in his headlong descent on some of the cross timbers, and rolled off into the river from which he was fished out in an insensible condition Shortly after the accident the Fannie Troup came along Dyer was placed on board and conveyed to Cathlamet where he has kind friends who will take care of him His injuries are of a serious nature and the prospects of recovery doubtful

INTO THE WATER —At the time a portion of the second story of the new wharf at the foot of Ash street gave way, precipitating a large quantity of wheat to the floor below about two tons of grain were thrown into the water A large upright brace was driven with tremendous violence through the lower floor thus opening an aperture into which the grain poured Although thoroughly soaked and spoiled for every purpose but feed most of the grain has been recovered. Several men were engaged yesterday in fishing up the sacks of wheat and hoisting them to the wharf above Considering the immense quantity of grain stored in the warehouse at the time, the amount lost was very slight.

SECOND CROP —Mrs Talbot, who resides near Marquam's Hill, within about two miles of the city laid on our table yesterday a small bunch of ripe raspberries These berries are of large size and retain all their delicacy of flavor although they are the second crop which has been produced this season from the same bushes This lady informs us that she has a number of blackberry bushes which are now covered with berries in the different stages of maturity from the blossoms to ripeness. The dogwood trees which grow on the hill adjacent to where this lady resides are also covered in many instances with blossoms—a very unusual occurrence at this advanced period of the season

BOILER—MACHINERY —The contract for the building of the boiler and engines for the new steamer which is being constructed by the Willamette River Transportation Company, has been awarded the Willamet Iron Works A few days since the contract was signed and nothing now delays the commencement of the work but the drafting of the plans. Everything will be finished and the work is to begin next week The contract calls for the building of two engines, the cylinders of which will be each 20-inch bore and five feet stroke with all the necessary jointing steam connections etc. also a boiler 64 inches in diameter 24 feet long, and to contain 196 tubes

NEEDED REPAIRS —At the Common Council last evening, the Superintendent of streets notified that body that some repairs were necessary to the long ditch which was dug last season around the base of Robinson Hill In places the banks had caved in, and the progress of the water obstructed Seventy five dollars was estimated by Mr Haberdham as being the sum required to put the ditch in good condition again The Council referred the matter to the Committee on Streets and Public Property who will doubtless report at the next meeting of that body

"OUR LITERARY SOCIETY" —This Society was organized on last Friday evening at the County Court room with the election of the following officers President Douglass Tay for Vice President O H Hendee Recording Secretary N L Gilham Corresponding Secretary W H Adams Treasurer Wallace R Struble This society is composed mostly of young men who were members of the Washington Debating Society which flourished for a number of years in this city hence we have no doubt they will make it a success

MORE CASTINGS READY —About 11 tons of castings have just been finished at the Willamet Iron Works for the new State Capitol The iron will not be shipped until the superintendent of construction shall have examined the material and accepted the work Mr Holman is expected to arrive in a few days from Salem when he will officially inspect these castings This last installment of iron closes the contract for the present season.

FINE VIEW —Persons who have visited the summit of Marquam's Hill within the last few days state that the view of the surrounding country from that elevated point is magnificent The rain which has visited the country during the last ten days has purified the air and greatly extended the range of vision The splendid view will amply repay one for the required labor to reach the top of this favorite eminence

ALL LOADED —The bark Spirit of the Dawn has finished discharging ballast and is loading at Flanders wharf The vessels Margaret Crockard, Hero and Rural are lying in the stream just below the ferry landing, on the east side These vessels have not yet completed their cargoes A quantity of wheat is to be placed on board from the new warehouse and the vessels will sail for their destination—San Fran[illegible]

C[illegible] —The several cases for illegal vo[illegible] yesterday in the Police Court [illegible] of the Prosecuting Attorney they were [illegible] as many of the principal witnesses [illegible] before the grand jury giving evidence [illegible] under investigation there [illegible] will be [illegible] take place

[illegible] SHAFT —After [illegible] of labor [illegible] difficulty the [illegible] shaft [illegible] has been taken out [illegible] the shaft [illegible] broken [illegible] repaired [illegible] new [illegible] days [illegible] to complete the [illegible] will be ready to [illegible] down [illegible]

D[illegible] discharging [illegible] ballast [illegible] freight [illegible] the [illegible] and Theresa [illegible] the Peg [illegible] discharging [illegible] All these vessels are to [illegible] with grain—the two former for Europe [illegible] latter for San Francisco

FOR E[illegible] OREGON —The Dalles boat carried away [illegible] morning about sixty head of sheep for wagons and several families bound for Eastern Oregon They came from some point in the valley

PREPARING TO DEPART —General Michler who is to relieve Major Robert arrived on the John L Stephens Major Robert who has been transferred to Wisconsin is making active preparations to take his departure Some time will be required in turning over all the papers of the District to his successor straightening up unfinished affairs etc Major Robert will probably not complete arrangements to leave before three weeks

NEW ENGINE HOUSE —The contract for rebuilding the new engine house for Protection Co No 4 was awarded some days ago Mr Oderkirk has the contract for the brick and wood work and the Willamette Iron Works the necessary casting The [illegible] $6400 Already the [illegible] some of the wood work [illegible] work is soon to be commenced

[illegible] —Sheriff Fozier of Washington county returned yesterday from Salem where he had [illegible] charge of Wm Watkins [illegible] Mr Fozier This individual was sentenced at the last term of the Circuit Court to imprisonment in the penitentiary for one year He was convicted on a charge of larceny from a dwelling house in Cornelius

OFFICIAL VOTE —As yet the official vote of the county is unknown Most of the poll books from the various precincts have been received at the office of the County Clerk Until all the books are received at the office the Clerk has no authority to break the seal of rolls The law allows ten days for all the books to be received

FIRST FROST —The first frost which has visited this immediate part of the county was seen on Tuesday night Jack came tracking very lightly but he left unmistakable traces of his footsteps on the vegetables fruit and foliage Farmers can soon expect to have frequent and bolder visits from that nipping rogue

WAIVED AN EXAMINATION —Buxton, who was arrested on Monday evening for threatening to kill Officer Burk was arraigned on the charge yesterday morning in the Police Court He waived an examination and was held to answer the charge before the Grand Jury now in session

ADMITTED TO BAIL —The man John Ryan, arrested on Monday charged with illegal voting, waived an examination yesterday morning, in the police court He was admitted to bail and released

HOT AIR FURNACE —A number of packages arrived on the brig Po[illegible] from San Francisco These boxes contain a hot air furnance which will be used in heating the new Bank of British Columbia

COMMON COUNCIL

REGULAR MEETING OCTOBER 15 1873

The Common Council of the City of Portland met pursuant to adjournment Mayor H Failing in the Chair

Present F D Jackson Clerk and Auditor [illegible] Chief of Police Lappeus

Councilmen present [illegible] Burton Hoyt [illegible] and Story

Absent Moreland

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved

COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was read from the Mayor

To the Honorable the Common Council [illegible] with return without my approval an ordinance entitled An Ordinance to fix the salary of the Superintendent of Streets for a limited period

On the 10th of July last I returned to the Council an ordinance fixing the salary of the Superintendent of Streets and of a Deputy on the ground that [illegible] dollars to the amount therein specified for the same service and suggested to the Council that the ordinance be [illegible] the duties and compensation of Surveyor and Street Commissioner [illegible] Street Department which would be both more efficient and economical Upon the return of the ordinance and being again placed upon its passage it was lost by unanimous vote

The subject of salaries to the different officers of the city was referred to a special committee That committee made diligent investigation of the subject and particularly as it concerned the Street Department as evidenced by their report of ordinance fixing the duties and compensation of these officers While the matter was in the hands of the committee I approved an ordinance similar to that here with returned providing temporarily for the pay of Superintendent of Streets I did so because the whole subject matter was in the hands of the committee and it was expected that the salaries would be permanently provided for and the duties so divided as to lessen the offices and economize in money

When the Committee reported by ordinance the Council saw fit to defeat the ordinance and continue the present extravagance Meantime, a Deputy Superintendent of the Streets has been employed by the Superintendent without authority of ordinance

If this deputy is compensated from time to time for a limited period the expense of street surveys and supervising street improvements will fall but little short of $8 000 per year

I believe it to be a piece of extravagance and to be a larger amount than a private individual or any private corporation would be willing to pay for like service without at least an earnest endeavor to reduce it

Instead of making this effort a majority or one half of the members of the Council refuse not only to pass an ordinance consolidating the street department but after postponing from time to time for four months the consideration of the subject of salaries by direct vote defeat all ordinances reported by the Committee looking to retrenchment

If it be the opinion of the Council that the present system of extravagance shall be maintained there is no reason why the salary of an officer shall be provided for temporarily and the Council might as well fix a permanent salary at once

As stated by me in my communication of July last, I do not regard the salary named in the ordinance too large provided the office is made one of responsibility—having entire oversight of all matters connected with surveys and improvements and dispensing with a portion of the assistants now employed but if it is intended to pay this salary for the supervision of street improvements only and the enforcing of ordinances relating to streets, I prefer that the Council shall take the entire responsibility

A fresh mown meadow stretching [illegible] the right
Beyond dark druid trees [illegible] tall [illegible]
Before their shrine of hills [illegible] with light

HONORS TO THE BRAVE

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIALS TO THE HEROIC MEN WHO WENT TO THE RELIEF OF THE PASSENGER TRAIN ON THE MILWAUKEE ROAD WHICH WAS SNOW BOUND LAST WINTER—INTERESTING CEREMONIES AT DECORAH, IOWA.

(Cor St Paul Press.)

DECORAH, Iowa, Sept [illegible]—Allow me once more to call the attention of the readers of the Press to an event in their lives which they can never forget—the great storm of January 1873. An event which marks an epoch in the history of the northwest. Many a case of suffering, many an instance of personal heroism that has never found its way into print will be graphically told by coming generations when seated around comfortable fires, as a part of the history of their fathers.

The passengers and train hands on Geo. Caldwell's train No 2 will well remember that terrible "Wednesday" when grouped around the stoves in the passenger and mail cars speculating on the awful consequences that were staring them in the face, and how their hearts [illegible] with joy when the men from Ridgeway [illegible] in our midst with their packs of provisions, and again the cars rang with cheers when we saw those noble fellows from Calmar, Jamieson, De La Ronde, Wilson and Bradley, who had faced that awful storm from the [illegible] of eight miles, groping their way like [illegible] Sampsons from one telegraph-pole to another until they reached our train. Words could not express our delight and thanks, [illegible] by the breathing thoughts and burning words of Gen. Lawler and he [illegible] the poverty of words, snatched from his [illegible] his massive gold chain and placed it over that of Wilson. The passengers aboard that train, the citizens of Decorah and men along the line of the road, felt that something should be done for those other brave heroes. Therefore the most expensive watches that could be [illegible] in Europe were ordered, and papers put in circulation to raise the money. The watches having arrived and appropriately engraved, the citizens of Decorah, all the donors, and many others were asked to meet at Steyer's Opera House, for the purpose of presenting the magnificent presents to R. W. Jamieson and S. J. De La Ronde. And by half past [illegible] evening there was an immense concourse of people collected in the hall consisting of the elite of our city and many from [illegible], but owing to a break in the road the [illegible] did not arrive from Calmar until about [illegible], and during the delay [illegible] Band [illegible] sweet music while those [illegible] how to do it, tripped the light fantastic toe, but soon after the train arrived J. F. [illegible] escorted Jamieson and De La Ronde to the upper end of the hall where the presentation took place. The recipients of the [illegible] testimonials responded in modest [illegible].

[illegible] RULING

The Postmaster-General rules that [illegible] circumstances can a postmaster [illegible] to open letters not addressed to [illegible]. The delivery of letters should be [illegible] or to his or her [illegible]. [illegible] is called to the following [illegible] of Hon. Judge Sherman, of Ohio, [illegible] in the United States Postal Guide, [illegible] 5, February 15, 1873, in the case of the [illegible] vs. John Harper, Alfred Davis and William Bowman.

[illegible] of Judge Sherman.—Held, that the [illegible] set up and shown in defense constitute no answer to the complaint. [illegible] the laws nor the regulations [illegible] as made by the Postmaster-General, [illegible] of any excuse for breaking open letters [illegible] to another for the purpose of prying into their business or secrets, or obtaining [illegible] as to the whereabouts of the [illegible], or for any other purpose whatever [illegible] of law can justify any such interference with letters in the custody of the Post-office Department or of a postmaster and [illegible] any officer of the law, notwithstanding he [illegible] hold writs of warrant or seizure as well as any postmaster or other person assenting to [illegible] with him, although command [illegible] to do so, would, by reason of such interference with letters, make themselves liable to the penalties of the law.

The privacy, as well as the sanctity of a [illegible], must be held inviolate, and all the safeguards known to the law must be rigidly observed and enforced to secure that end. I shall impose a fine of $150 and costs upon each of the defendants.

L. S. Kain, for defendants. George Willey, United States Attorney for Government.

SHERMAN ON LINCOLN.—In his response to a [illegible] at the dinner of the Army of the [illegible] Maryland in Pittsburg, Penn., last week, Gen. Sherman said: "There are a thousand [illegible] I might relate to-night but I will confine myself to one or two, and one is a little [illegible] which happened in the early part of the war, when I was a member of the Army of the Potomac, for you know I fought and was [illegible] at Bull Run. We had fallen back to the Potomac and my line was between Georgetown and old Fort Corcoran. One day I was out [illegible] a block-house on my line, when I [illegible] a carriage [illegible] drawn by two old [illegible], and I guessed at once that Lincoln was coming. So I cut across and stood by the roadside as he came up. In answer to my salute, he said: 'Col. Sherman?' I am that person,' I said. 'I am out seeing some of the boys,' added the President, 'is this your brigade?' I replied that it was, and he said he would be pleased to visit them if I would show the way. I escorted him and Mr. Seward to the nearest camp, sending a soldier in advance to warn the command of the approach of the President and cause the assembly to be beaten. Passing along up the hill (Gen. McDowell will remember the road by which we had to ascend) we talked of Bull Run and other matters of military interest and Mr. Lincoln asked if he might make a speech to the boys. I said I should consider it as a favor if he would, and I insisted he would discourage the yelling which was becoming so unpleasantly common among the soldiers. I had the first regiment drawn up in line and halting his carriage, Lincoln rose and spoke: 'Gentlemen, I have heard Clay in his palmiest days. I have heard Crittenden with his keenest satire, I have heard the best orators and have marked them well, but I never heard a man who spoke to the hearts of men as Lincoln spoke to those of the men who stood before him. I remember almost every word he said. He addressed them as children, and said that those were sad days, but better were coming, that the rain had fallen but the skies would soon be clear, they should not be discouraged but think of the to-morrow which awaited them, having faith in the nation and in final success which would come as surely as there was a God in Heaven. That speech reached all hearts, and was worth its weight in diamonds."

CHASE A BARBER.—Men of talent often fail from turning their talents in a wrong direction. Chief Justice Chase, for example, would never have made a successful barber. He lived for a while [illegible] with his uncle Bishop Chase, who [illegible] him for college. One morning he [illegible] the [illegible] Salmon to kill and dress a pig. The [illegible] statesman was not much of a butcher, and when he came to the delicate operation [illegible] horror! the hair [illegible] bethought himself of his [illegible] razor [illegible] In due course of time, had the porker shaved from tip of snout to tail end. The bishop, on his return, complimented his nephew [illegible] neatness with which he had performed the task. When however the old gentleman came to shave himself his cherished razor was found in a sad plight. An investigation followed and young Salmon received some very serious advice.

It is estimated that the bridge across the Mississippi at St. Louis with its approaches will cost $9,000,000.

To-day's telegraphic [illegible] from New York speak of [illegible] the [illegible] first [illegible] the stock [illegible] Wall street having just encountered [illegible] a protracted battle and summary defeat [illegible] up the price of gold find the [illegible] attempt to inflate stock [illegible] the [illegible] people [illegible] The [illegible] ters has been also [illegible] instructed [illegible] that a Wall street clique [illegible] property to [illegible] The [illegible] men are [illegible] with [illegible] would [illegible] their full [illegible] and fatter on the life blood of the widow and the orphan. Like foul vultures they revel in the [illegible] They may flourish for awhile but they cannot escape the doom [illegible] which they have [illegible]. It is however very gratifying to know that we have a [illegible] the [illegible] Government who cannot be cajoled or induced to commit gross public wrongs. If the President [illegible] the resources of the Treasury for the relief of corporate bodies he may with equal justice employ them for the relief of individuals. Vanderbilt and Johnson hold that a man has the right to do whatever he pleases, but as an Eastern contemporary aptly remarks, the fact is that no man, be he President or private citizen, may always do what he wants to.

One Cipher Too Many.

We clip the following which might give one a [illegible] posted a rather large idea of the crops in Oregon from the October number of the [illegible]:

The Jacksonville Times says that twelve acres of club wheat belonging to Mr. Aaron Chambers, living in Rogue River Valley, yielded upwards of 600 bushels to the acre, and adds that this is not an extraordinary case, but has happened all over the valley.

Now while we believe that our State will, with the same amount of cultivation, produce as large crops or larger than any other part of the globe, we beg leave to ask that for truth's sake one cipher be taken from the figures in the above item. Six hundred bushels to the acre would be small for onions and potatoes, but for wheat it is rather better than even Oregon can do.

American Iron.

The recent sales of American Iron in England at a figure below the current rates for the English product very seriously alarmed the Iron men of that country, and for a time threatened to bring about quite a revolution in the general course of trade in this commodity, the result of which would be a wonderful stimulation of the manufacturing enterprises throughout the United States. The sudden check put upon the sale of railroad bonds by the recent panic in New York and Philadelphia and the speculative operations of Wall street brokers must seriously retard our progress in several important directions. Roads whose credit has been impaired by the panic have canceled large orders for locomotives and rails and in one factory alone over a thousand hands have been discharged from employment which furnished them with wages to the extent of $10.00 per week. The Secretary of the National Pig Iron Association stated that we were building railroads at the rate of 7,000 miles per year involving 1,400,000 tons of iron for each mile, or 1,400,000 tons for annual construction account. Besides this there are 70,000 miles of railways in operation which require not less than 10 per cent. or another 1,000,000 tons every year to keep them in repair. Here then says the Engineering and Mining Journal are 2,100,000 tons of bar iron for railroads alone, and it is plain that if American furnaces had furnished all the pigs for these bars, not a ton of American pig would have been left for other purposes. But we imported 1,250,000 tons and used up 800,000 tons of scrap. It has been estimated by well informed parties that the construction of railroads will be decreased from 7,000 miles a year to less than 2,000 for some years to come, and this large decline in the demand for iron in the shape of rails, locomotives and other matters connected with railway enterprises cannot fail to have a depressing effect on the business of mining and making iron both in this country and in England. We were just upon the eve of congratulating ourselves with the prospect of not only becoming independent of England, but likewise of supplanting her sales of iron in several important markets. This hope will however now have to be abandoned for a long time to come. The iron mining companies organized and organizing on the Pacific coast will undoubtedly be staggered by the blow given to their enterprise in the greatly lessened demand for iron.

Miscellaneous.

William Wells Esq., of Polk county, has been engaged in Hop culture in Oregon for six years and says that Oregon produces as good Hops as any place in the world, and they are sought after by San Francisco dealers and every bale is engaged before it is harvested. He has just secured his crop from eight acres, 10,000 pounds.

A Boston exchange of the [illegible] says: Notwithstanding the panic in commercial circles caused by the stoppage of several New York banking houses the Wool market during the week has been quite active and very nearly 3,700,000 lbs. of foreign and domestic Wool have changed hands. Manufacturers absorbed nearly the whole, as there is comparatively little speculation going on, which accounts for the great firmness in prices. Until the money market however is restored to its normal condition we may look forward to a period of less activity than we have experienced of late.

Overland shipments of treasure from San Francisco by express for week ending October 8th were as follows: $[illegible] in silver bars, $[illegible] in gold coin and $2,[illegible] in gold bars—total $280,[illegible]. Customs duties absorbed $163,082 11 against $171,019 of the week preceding. Steamer Montana from Mexican ports October 5th brought $211,7[illegible] in Mexican dollars. The Montana sailed again for Panama on the 7th of October taking $1,[illegible] in Gold bars for England.

The surplus Wheat crop of Eastern Oregon this year is estimated at 700,000 bushels. The high freights on the Columbia will cause much of this to be carried over.

The Cotton crop of California in 1873 will amount it is supposed to a thousand bales.

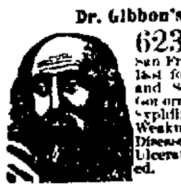
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies; see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz.: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Post-office or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Postoffice Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN.
